MOLDING THE PERFORMERS OF TOMORROW

"People come up to me and say, "You're so feminine and so aware of yourself". A year and a half ago, I would never have thought that I would become this dancer and it's all because of The Girls Club...Everything that we learn is so relevant and so current and I learn things that I can apply right away."

-Amanda W.

"Since I've been with The Girls Club, I've learned so many valuable lessons about myself as an artist, a dancer and as a person. I've learned most importantly, that there isno one type of way to be sexy and that we can all be sexy in our own skin. Especially for me coming from a background as a hip-hop dancer, a lot of the styles and genres I was used to doing were more masculine...and Tamina really taught me how to pull up and find who I was as a woman but not in a way that was generic, commercial or false. still feel strong when I dance but I feel very much like a woman and I'm very proud to say that I dance with many other women who feel the exact same way."

-Christina D.

MOLDING THE PERFORMERS OF TOMORROW

"Through The Girls Club, I've learned so much about myself from the mental and physical challenges that her training brings. She encourages you to step outside your comfort zone, fine tunes your strengths and shows you how to work on your weaknesses."

"I would HIGHLY recommend if you serious about becoming a dancer in the industry! The amount of information I gained from The Girls Club on how to carry myself as a dancer inside an audition helped me immensely and still does to this day even outside of an audition."

"I can not begin to describe the amount of growth, knowledge, support and love I have gained being a part of this movement led by Tamina Pollack-Paris. You must experience it for yourself to see how much you will gain and learn from this collective."

-Joie Ann M.

-Mikee M.

-Teniya B.

"Words can't really begin to describe what being a part of this collective means to me. The Girls Club is 'that group' that I always wanted to be in growing up - where the good vibes are endless, there is freedom of expression and everyone loves and supports you through every step of your journey...I had never danced in heels before and my self-confidence wasn't all that great but Tamina Pollack-Paris saw something in me that I couldn't see myself at the time. Thanks to this collective I can proudly say that I am finding myself as a dancer and am a different woman than when I walked through those doors 8 months ago. I strongly encourage anyone thinking about auditioning to stop thinking, get your heels ready and get yourself to that audition with your head held high - because if you do, (cue the drama) your life will SERIOUSLY thank you for it." -Lisa C.

"So much love for this collective! I'm grateful for the knowledge and experiences gained from Tamina Pollack-Paris and OGC ladies, thank you for keeping me on my toes and pushing me to embrace challenges as an opportunity for a breakthrough."

-Cassie P.
